

IN OUR BACKYARD

A community dialogue about substance abuse issues and prevention for parents, youth, and all concerned community members. Hear what the youth in our community have to say

IT'S TIME TO TALK

WHEN: Thursday, October 22, 2015 at 6:30pm

WHERE: Maple Hill High School, Schodack Community
1216 Maple Hill Road, Castleton, NY

TOWN HALL MEETING

This discussion is open to parents, students, community members, and leaders. Panelists will be on-hand to address issues of prevention, community impact, law enforcement, treatment, and recovery as well as discuss ways in which our community can address substance abuse issues while working to protect and assist our youth.

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Understand substance abuse problems and prevention
- Gain a working knowledge of the signs and symptoms of substance abuse
- Learn to create an open dialogue with children about substance abuse and its impact

PRESENTERS:

Samara Dorward

Chief Castleton Ambulance

Judge Deb Young

Rensselaer Co. Judge

Lieutenant Jon Reickert

Schodack Police Department

Jennifer Haggerty, LMSW

Rensselaer County
Mental Health

Jeff Brewer

Albany College of Pharmacy,
Pharmacist

Hudson Mohawk Recovery Center- Addictions Specialist

Parent of child in recovery

Youth in recovery

(Hope House)

SPONSORED BY Schodack School District, Rensselaer County Mental Health, Cooperative Christian Ministry of Schodack (CCMS), Castleton/Schodack Kiwanis and Concerned Schodack families. Supported by Joe Keegan, Village of Castleton Mayor, Dennis Dowds, Schodack Town Supervisor and Bob Horan, Superintendent of Schodack School District

A Concerned Community Working Towards a Drug Free Community

For more information please contact: Pat Wood@ pwood@schodack.k12.ny.us or 732-7701
Craig Wilkinson @ chamoechay@yahoo.com or 265-7747